Stanstead
College

You are on your way

There is no better starting point for your journey than Stanstead College. We are a Canadian boarding and day school, close to Montreal and right on the Canada-US border. We are an English school in the heart of rural Quebec. We are a small school of 280 students from down the street and around the globe. In short, we are the crossroads, and wherever you are headed, Stanstead College can get you there.

You are part of a community

Stanstead College prepares students for university. But we also prepare students for the world by celebrating diverse cultures and fostering a strong sense of independence. All this is accomplished in a supervised environment where teachers are also coaches, house directors, mentors and advisors. Students grow into themselves while making life-long connections. In a word: family.

"My favourite thing about Stanstead College is the community. I am always surrounded by people who care about me and who are always willing to lend a helping hand." – Emma MacIntyre

You are a part of history

Stanstead College was founded in 1872 as a Wesleyan Methodist school with an emphasis on educating the whole person. Today, Stanstead College is fully non-denominational but carries on the values reflected in our motto: Sanitas Sapientia Religio – Health, Wisdom, Integrity. Students take pride in Spartan tradition while growing and adapting to modern challenges and opportunities.

You are prepared

Small class sizes, attentive teachers and focused university guidance ensure that students achieve their post-secondary goals. In addition to the Quebec curriculum in Grades 7 through 11, Stanstead College also offers a Grade 12 option with a full range of Advanced Placement courses. As an accredited Canadian member of the New England Association of Schools and Colleges, Stanstead College opens doors for university acceptances across North America and around the world.

"Stanstead's strong academics and athletics set me on the right path toward my future. I had a support system that focused on putting me in the best position to achieve my goals." – Oscar Rosen, 2023, University of Michigan

University Guidance is here for you

The University Guidance team helps students discover and zero in on their post-secondary goals and options. Whether it's helping students prepare for SATs or guiding them through the application process, our team has the know-how to help all our students achieve their dreams.

You are elite

With a record of success spanning decades, Stanstead College's hockey program is recognized as one of North America's finest.

Student-athletes train and develop in state-of-the-art facilities, and the schedule of competition for both the girls and boys provides maximum exposure to scouts and recruiters at the university, junior and professional levels. The training is player-focused with emphasis on developing the whole student-athlete and promotion to higher ranks.

"Stanstead helped me get ready to play at a higher level. I will forever be thankful for the teachers and coaches who helped me along the way."

- Alexia Aubin, 2024, Colgate University

You are growing

Student life—it's everything that happens outside the classroom and off the playing field. It's boarding with a roommate from another country. It's gaining leadership skills as a prefect. It's singing at Café Cappuccino or acting in a play. It's taking part in weekend activities. It's the support of our wellness team. It's Winter Carnival, class trips, club afternoons and simply having an amazing time hanging out with friends. In other words, student life is never dull.

Our new Wellness Centre includes 24-hour service from live-in nurses plus a professional counsellor during the day to respond to the emotional needs of the students. The team is complemented by a dedicated athletic therapist and a doctor on campus regularly.

You are ready

If you are seeking the skills, knowledge and values to achieve your goals, if you are focused on becoming a responsible, global citizen, if you are looking to reach your potential while developing lifelong friendships, you are ready to become a part of the Stanstead College family.
